Heard both sides.

Though in this writ petition, the petitioner, who has been working as a Driver, seeks to assail the impugned proceedings of the year 1997, inter alia, on various grounds, however, it is now represented by the learned counsel for the petitioner that subsequently in the year 2000, the petitioner's services were terminated and having regard to the same, nothing survives except to the extent that he would be entitled to all the terminal benefits even for the period during which he has worked. There cannot be any dispute in this regard. It is always open for the respondents to consider the petitioner's claim for such benefits, emoluments etc., to which he is entitled to under law and make the payments to the petitioner.

Subject to the above, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
